ABOUT THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY AND THE INTERNATIONAL SEMINAR

Every year, the General Assembly and International Seminar of the International Cooperation Group of Brazilian Universities are attended by representatives of higher education institutions, diplomats, government authorities and representatives of international organizations from around 40 countries located on all five continents.

This year, the General Assembly and International Seminar will be held in partnership with Tor Vergata University and Roma Tre University in Rome, Italy.

With the central theme: "International Academic Cooperation: towards a sustainable, inclusive and multicultural world", the Seminar aims to promote debates on relevant issues faced globally in the 21st century.

The events will be supported by the Brazilian Embassy in Rome and will be part of the celebrations of the 150th anniversary of Italian immigration to Brazil.

ITALY

Italy is a European nation with a population of approximately 60 million. The country has a diversified economy, encompassing sectors such as automobiles, fashion, industrial machinery and tourism, which play a crucial role in generating revenue.

In addition, Italy has historically been recognized for its contributions to the arts and sciences, having been the birthplace of countless famous artists, writers, musicians and scientists over the centuries.

The Italian language, known for its musicality and expressiveness, is widely spoken by millions of people around the world, giving Italian culture a global reach.

ROME

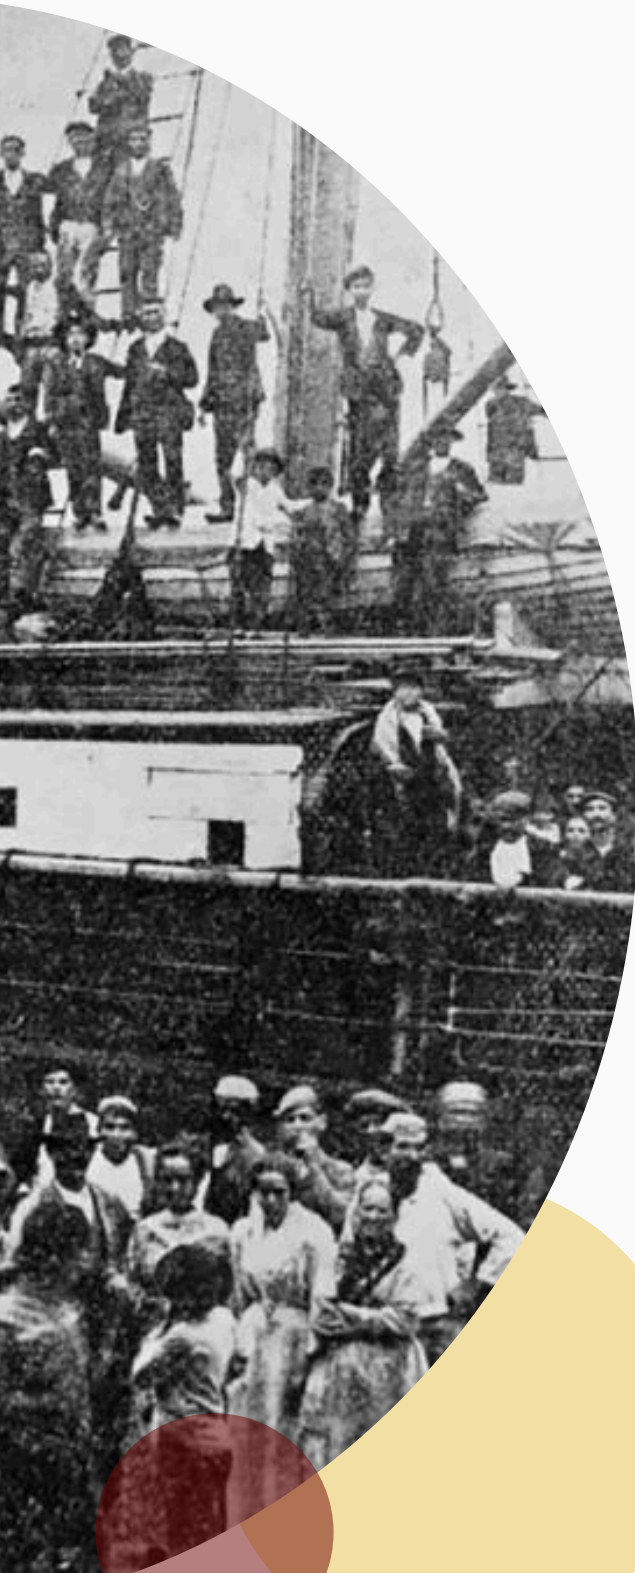

Rome, the capital of Italy, whose history goes back 28 centuries, has a significant cultural heritage. Rome was the first metropolis of the West, the cradle of one of the most important ancient civilizations. Today, Rome is the most populous city in Italy and the third most populous city in the European Union.

Its historic center is a UNESCO World Heritage Site. Rome is also an important religious center, attracting pilgrims from all over the world due to the presence of the Vatican and the Pope. With its architecture, gastronomy and vibrant lifestyle, Rome continues to be a popular tourist destination, enchanting visitors with its unique blend of past and present.

150 YEARS OF ITALIAN IMMIGRATION TO BRAZIL

Between the end of the 19th century and the beginning of the 20th century, millions of Italians left their homeland in search of opportunities in the Americas, and Brazil was one of their chosen destinations.

The Italian immigration to Brazil, which celebrated its 150th anniversary on February 21, 2024, had a significant impact on Brazilian society and culture. The date marks the arrival in Vitória (ES) in 1874 of the ship La Sofia, which brought around 400 immigrants from the regions of Trento and Veneto.

With strong family ties and a marked contribution to Brazil's diversity and multiculturalism, Italian immigration is celebrated as an integral part of the country's history and identity.
